1. This is a criminal revision application against the conviction of the applicant for an offence punishable under Section 379 of the IPC. The trial Court convicted him under Section 379 of IPC and sentenced him to under-go SI for 2 years and to pay fine of Rs.1000/-, in default to suffer RI for 3 months. The order is confirmed in appeal. The facts of the case are that the applicant had snatched the bag of PW-1 Vipul Jain and he was caught red handed while running away with the bag. The amount was recovered on the spot where he was accosted by the police constable. Copy of the evidence is also shown to me by the Advocate for the applicant and I find that neither the panch nor the complainant accosted him have been cross-examined. Thus prosecution case virtually gone un-challenged. In this circumstances, no fault can be found with the impugned judgment and order. Revision is therefore, dismissed.
